

What Poor Astronomers

John Dowland

S

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for stars, and
 And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle heads, to
 But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on wheels, while But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their sight, but

A

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for stars, and
 And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle heads, to
 But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on wheels, while But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their sight, but set will catch will leave

T

8 What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for stars, and
 And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle heads, to
 But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on wheels, while But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their sight, but set their will catch young will can - leave them

B

What poor a - stro - no - mers are they take wo - men's eyes for stars, and
 And love it - self is but a jest, de - vis'd by i - dle heads, to
 But yet it is a sport to see how wit will run on wheels, while
 But such as will run mad with will, I can - not clear their sight, but set their will catch young
 will can -
 leave them

www.everynote.com